Cost, strong competition may clip IndiGo's wings

For now, yields have been higher for the market leader in Q2

| RAM PRASAD SAHU  Mumbai, 24 August  he stock of $\begin{aligned} & \text { India's } \\ & \text { largest } \\ & \text { airline }\end{aligned}$ InterGlobe Aviation (IndiGo) has gained about 23 per cent since the beginning of July. This was led by expectations of rising yields and mar-ket-share gains. While yields have remained high in a seasonally weak quarter, its market share in July was hovering just under 59 per cent. Brokerages are, however, divided over the extent of gains, given the concerns related to elevated fuel costs and competitive pressures.  The gains for IndiGo on yields emanate both on account of higher prices and capacity constraints. Citing IndiGo management, analysts Aditya Mongia and Teena Virmani of Kotak Institutional Equities (KIE) say yields are better than what seasonal trends in a weak second quarter (Q2) would imply. These reflect the growing comfort of customers to pay higher tion, following IndiGo on price hikes. Both these trends are positive for a sector that has operated on small spreads for the most part of the last decade, they add.  Yields for the company had hit record levels of $₹ 5.24$ in the June quarter (demand is typically much stronger than the current quarter) and were ahead of Street estimates which had pegged the same at | year, tax paid abroad, or deduction on foreign income in Form 67 before Certificate or statement specifying the nature of income and the amount of tax paid or deducted on it mountor paidordeducted on it

-This document could be provided by the tax authority of the foreign jurisdiction

- The taxpayer could provide a self-declaration along withacknowledgement of online payment, bank counterfoil, or challan if he has paid it

- Proof of deduction iftax has been deducted

Things to keep in mind These relaxed rules must, however, be used with caution. Suresh Surana used with caution. Suresh Surana, founder, RSM India says, "Though CBDT has relaxed the timeline for furnishing horm 67 , taxpayers should ideally furnish it along with their returns, otherwise the processing of their returns and refund, if processing of their returns and refund, any, could get delayed."
Submitting Form 67 on the very last date could lead to practical challenges in e-verification. Surana adds, "Even if there is a substantial gap between the filing of tax return and the furnishing of Form 67 , tax return and the furnishing of Form 67, ensure there is no mismatch in the FTC amount claimed in the return and the amount mentioned in Form 67 ." There is no option to revise Form 67 once it has been filed. Singh adds, "Form once it has been filed. Singh adds, "Form 67 can be submitted only through online mode on the income tax e-filing portal." According to the new rule, a person who has not reported foreign income in the past two years may also claim FTC by the past two years may also claim FICby filing an updated ITR, but provide Form 67 before it. Due date of filing documents 6 before it. Due date of filing documents to claim FTC for updated return is on or before the date of filing of the return.
